TRANSCEND INFORMATION INC.
BUSINESS REPORT

Looking back in the first half year of 2019, due to the imbalanced supply and demand of DRAM and NAND flash, the memory market had faced the pressure of continuous price decline. As the manufacturers turned conservative towards holding inventory in response to market downturn, the memory industry experienced a decrease in both revenue and operating income compared to the same period last year. From the second half of 2019, the decline of DRAM and NAND flash price started to slow down and the memory market was getting back to normal. Transcend was able to maintain the high gross margin rate while facing this economy uncertainty by dedicating on the strong focus of inventory management and procurement strategy and it ensures the sufficient factory productivity and the customer satisfaction. In a bumpy memory market environment, Transcend adheres to a consistent and stable business strategy. In terms of consumer product, Transcend continues to improve existing product lines and launch new products in a timely manner to enhance customer satisfaction and brand value. For embedded clients, through close cooperation between headquarters and global subsidiaries, Transcend is able to grasp needs of the end customers, provide best services, and foster good long-term relationship with business partners. Hereby, we would like to thank our valued shareholders, clients, suppliers and employees for your continued supports to Transcend.

Transcend's consolidated revenue totaled NT$13.5 billion in 2019. Consolidated gross margin totaled NT$3.09 billion. Gross margin rate is 23.0 percent. Operating income totaled 1.78 billion. Earnings before income tax totaled 2.09 billion. Net income totaled 1.73 billion. EPS is NT$4.01 calculated at the weighted average of outstanding share capital amounting to 4.3 billion.

The exceptional product design, quality assurance, and the trustworthy brand awareness had brought Transcend numerous prestigious awards for years. Transcend was named one of Interbrand's Top 20 Best Taiwan Global Brands for the thirteenth year in a row, winning Taiwan Excellence Awards for the sixteenth consecutive year, and receiving Japan's Good Design Award for four consecutive years. The focus of brand management brought us to this great success and demonstrates that our outstanding product design is internationally recognized.

As a global leader in memory manufacturing, Transcend strives to offer not only the latest technologies and innovations, but also products and services of the highest quality to our valued customers. Transcend successfully expanded its embedded product portfolio in 2019, launching solid-state drives featuring the latest 96-layer 3D NAND flash for superior performance, reliability, and endurance. For the consumer market this year, Transcend grew its strategic product lines by introducing new Type-C storage and Hub solutions, which aimed to boost customers' work efficiency in the digital age.

In addition to developing a sustainable business strategy and contributing to economic growth, Transcend also actively invests in communities. For corporate social responsibility, we have sponsored youth sports activities, including the High School Basketball League (HBL) and the Black Panther High School Baseball Tournament. Transcend continues to execute the long-term Baseball Mentoring Program which aimed at underprivileged school baseball teams for the fifth year and expects it to serve as a platform for young promising athletes to fulfill their dreams.

Looking forward to 2020, the memory market has been benefited by the healthier inventory level, the stabilizing market demand and the coming new application in 5G, AIoT, automotive and so on. The price of DRAM and NAND flash has increased gradually and we expect a prosperous outlook in this year would come.

By facing the fluctuation of economic cycle and drastic changes in the market environment, Transcend believes that the embedded solution and industrial application will be the key to the future success. In addition to maintaining a good relationship with existing customers and suppliers, Transcend continues to provide professional after-sales service and technical support, integrate clients' manufacturing process, and implement effective supply chain management through the assistance of Transcend Information System. We are confident that Transcend will have the growth momentum with new customer and new project development to increase our market share and create a win-win situation for both Transcend and our partners.

Here again we sincerely thank all of our shareholders for your continued support and for the confidence that you have placed in us. Transcend will act in the best interest of our shareholders, and make full disclosure of information to investors. We make every effort to drive our operational excellence, and look forward to sharing our progress with you.

Audit Report of Audit Committee

The Board of Directors has prepared the Company's 2019 Business Report, Financial Statements and Earnings Distribution Proposal. Transcend Corporation's Financial Statements have been audited and certified by Mr. Chun-Yao, Lin and Mr. Chien-Hung Chou, the CPA of the Pricewaterhouse Coopers. The Business Report, Financial Statements and Earnings Distribution Proposal have been reviewed and considered to be complied with relevant rules by the undersigned, the audit committee of Transcend Corporation. Pursuant to Article 14-4 of the Securities and Exchange Act and Article 219 of the Company Act, we hereby submit this report.

The audit Committee of Transcend Corporation

Chairman of the audit Committee: Wang, Yi-Shin

March 05, 2020

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS TRANSLATED FROM CHINESE

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Transcend Information, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Transcend Information, Inc. (the“Company”) as at December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the related statements of comprehensive income, of changes in equity and of cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at December 31, 2019 and 2018, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the “Regulations Governing the Preparations of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers”.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit of the accompanying financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2019 in accordance with the “Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants”, ”Rule No. Financial-Supervisory-Securitie-Auditing-1090360805 issued by the Financial Supervisory Commission on February 25, 2020” ,and generally accepted auditing standards in the Republic of China (ROC GAAS); and in accordance with the “Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants” and generally accepted auditing standards in the Republic of China (ROC GAAS) for our audit of the accompanying financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2018. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountants in the Republic of China (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole and, in forming our opinion thereon, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters for the Company's financial statements of the current period are stated as follows:

Evaluation of inventories

Description

Refer to Notes 4(12), 5(2) and 6(5) to the financial statements for the information on the Company's inventory accounting policy, estimates and assumptions and allowance for inventory evaluation losses.

The percentage of the Company's inventories to total assets is material and the Company applies judgements and estimates in determining the net realizable value of inventories at balance sheet date. The Company mainly produces DRAM and flash memory. As these products have a short life cycle and belong to a highly competitive industry, the market prices change frequently. Since the Company's inventories and the allowance for inventory valuation losses are material to the financial statements, the evaluation of inventories has been identified as a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter

We performed the following audit procedures in respect of the above key audit matter:

- A. Obtained an understanding of the Company's operations and industry. Assessed the reasonableness of the policy and procedures to recognize allowance for inventory valuation losses.
- B. Obtained an understanding of the Company's inventory control procedures. Reviewed annual inventory count plan and observed the annual physical count of inventory in order to assess the effectiveness of internal controls over inventory.
- C. Obtained relevant evaluation reports of inventory and tested the logic and accuracy of information to assess the reasonableness of allowance for inventory valuation losses.

Estimation of allowance for sales discount

Description

In consideration of business volume, the Company provides a variety of business incentives to specific customers or products, and based on that, the Company can estimate the allowance for sales discount monthly. Refer to Note 4(23) and 6(4) to the financial statements for the information on the estimation of allowance for sales discount.

Since the contracts are numerous and the result could affect the net revenue in the financial statements, the estimation of allowance for sales discount has been identified as a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter

We performed the following audit procedures in respect of the above key audit matter:

- A. Obtained an understanding of the Company's operations, industry and the procedures to recognize allowance for sales discount.
- B. Obtained an understanding of the Company's sales procedures and interviewed management to assess the appropriateness of sales allowance contracts and internal control over estimation of allowance.
- C. Obtained the evaluation list of allowance for sales discount, and tested material sales allowance contracts and recalculated it to assess the reasonableness of allowance determined by the Company.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the "Regulations Governing the Preparations of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers", and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including audit committee, are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ROC GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ROC GAAS, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- A. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- B. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- C. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- D. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- E. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- F. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

March 5, 2020

The accompanying financial statements are not intended to present the financial position and results of operations and cash flows in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in countries and jurisdictions other than the Republic of China. The standards, procedures and practices in the Republic of China governing the audit of such financial statements may differ from those generally accepted in countries and jurisdictions other than the Republic of China. REPORT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS TRANSLATED FROM CHINESE

PWCR19000321

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Transcend Information, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Transcend Information, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) as at December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the related consolidated statements of comprehensive income, of changes in equity and of cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as at December 31, 2019 and 2018, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the “Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers” and the International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations as endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit of the consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2019 in accordance with the “Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants”, “Rule No. Financial-Supervisory-Securities-Auditing-1090360805 issued by the Financial Supervisory Commission on February 25, 2020” and generally accepted auditing standards in the Republic of China (ROC GAAS); and in accordance with the “Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants” and generally accepted auditing standards in the Republic of China (ROC GAAS) for our audit of the consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2018. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountants in the Republic of China (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole and, in forming our opinion thereon, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters for the Group's consolidated financial statements of the current period are stated as follows:

Evaluation of inventories

Description

Refer to Notes 4(13), 5(2) and 6(5) to the consolidated financial statements for the information on the Group's inventory accounting policy, estimates and assumptions and allowance for inventory evaluation losses.

The percentage of the Group's inventories to total assets is material and the Group applies judgements and estimates in determining the net realizable value of inventories at balance sheet date. The Group mainly produces DRAM and flash memory. As these products have a short life cycle and belong to a highly competitive industry, the market prices change frequently. Since the Group's inventories and the allowance for inventory valuation losses are material to the financial statements, the evaluation of inventories has been identified as a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter

We performed the following audit procedures in respect of the above key audit matter:

- A. Obtained an understanding of the Group's operations and industry. Assessed the reasonableness of the policy and procedures to recognize allowance for inventory valuation losses.
- B. Obtained an understanding of the Group's inventory control procedures. Reviewed annual inventory count plan and observed the annual physical count of inventory in order to assess the effectiveness of internal controls over inventory.
- C. Obtained relevant evaluation reports of inventory and tested the logic and accuracy of information to assess the reasonableness of allowance for inventory valuation losses.

Estimation of allowance for sales discount

Description

In consideration of business volume, the Group provides a variety of business incentives to specific customers or products, and based on that, the Group can estimate the allowance for sales discount monthly. Refer to Notes 4(25) and 6(4) to the consolidated financial statements for the information on the estimation of allowance for sales discount.

Since the contracts are numerous and the result could affect the net revenue in the consolidated financial statements, the estimation of allowance for sales discount has been identified as a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter

We performed the following audit procedures in respect of the above key audit matter:

- A. Obtained an understanding of the Group's operations, industry and the procedures to recognize allowance for sales discount.
- B. Obtained an understanding of the Group's sales procedures and interviewed management to assess the appropriateness of sales allowance contracts and internal control over estimation of allowance.
- C. Obtained the evaluation list of allowance for sales discount, and tested material sales allowance contracts and recalculated it to assess the reasonableness of allowance determined by the Group.

Other matter –Parent company only financial reports

We have audited and expressed an unqualified opinion on the parent company only financial statements of Transcend Information, Inc. as at and for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the consolidated financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the "Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers" and the International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations as endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including audit committee, are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ROC GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ROC GAAS, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- A. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- B. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- C. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- D. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- E. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

F. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

ISSUANCE RULES OF TRANSCEND 2019 RESTRICTED STOCK AWARDS PLAN

Article 1 : Purpose

To attract and retain talents, motivate and engage employees for the best interest of the Company and its shareholders, so as to ensure the alignment of the employees' and shareholders' interests. The following issuance rules of Transcend 2019 Restricted Stock Awards Plan ("the Rules") are stipulated in accordance with Item 9, Article 267 of the Company Act, and Exchange Act and the Regulations Governing the Offering Issuance of Securities by Securities Issuers ("the Regulation") released by the Financial Supervisory Commission.

Article 2 : Duration of issuance

With one year following the day the approval notice from the competent authority is delivered, the Company may issue the restricted stock awards once or multiple times. The actual date of issuance and related matters shall be determined by the Chairman of the Company ("the Chairman") as authorized by the Company's Board of Directors ("the Board of Directors").

Article 3 : Qualification requirements for employees

1. Full-time employees of the Company and full-time employees of domestic or foreign controlled or affiliated companies who are already employed on the date that the restricted stock awards are awarded.
2. The number of granted shares shall be determined by seniority, position, performance, overall contribution and other meaningful factors in management. The results of shares distribution shall be reviewed by the Chairman and obtain approval in the Board of Directors meeting. However, for employees who are managers, the awards of such shares are subject to approval by the Compensation Committee.
3. The sum of the cumulative number of share granted to each employee by share distribution warrant in accordance with Article 56-1-1 of the Regulations and by restricted stock awards shall not exceed 0.3% of the total outstanding shares of the Company. The aforesaid total amount of shares plus the share subscription warrant the Company grants to each to each employee shall not exceed 1% of the total outstanding shares of the Company. However, with special approval from the central competent authority of the relevant industry, the total number of employee stock warrants and restricted stock awards obtained by a single employee may be exempted from the above-mentioned restriction. If the laws and regulations are revised in the future, the Company may apply the revised laws and regulations.

Article 4 : Total amount of issuance

The total number of shares issued by the Company under this plan shall be 2,000,000 common shares, each share having a par value of NT$10, for a total amount of NT$20,000,000.

Article 5 : Terms and conditions for issuance

1. Issue price: The current issue is gratuitous.

2. Class of issued shares: the Company's newly issued common shares.
3. Vesting conditions:
 - i. Employee's continuous employment with the Company on each vesting date is required. Employees must achieve both of personal performance target and the Company's operation objectives during the vesting period to be qualified to receive the vested shares. The proportions of the vesting shares to be granted each year are as below:

Continuous employment with the Company one year after the granted date – 30%

Continuous employment with the Company two years after the granted date – 30%

Continuous employment with the Company three years after the granted date – 40%

The share calculation shall be rounded to the nearest thousand shares.
 - ii. The personal performance target is set by the company and respective agreements of the employees and is based on the rating result for the year preceding the vesting dates.
 - iii. The Company's operation objectives are based on the sales revenue and gross margin shown on the financial statements certified by a certified public accountant and the internal performance assessment agreed by the Company and the employees.
 - iv. The Company shall revoke and cancel portions of the unvested shares of restricted stock awards granted to the employee if the employee voluntarily resigns, discharges, been laid-off, retires, or transfers to an affiliated company within three years after the granted date.
 - v. The company shall revoke and cancel portions of the unvested shares of restricted stock awards granted to the employee if the employee violates the Company's employment agreement, employee handbook, or other regulations set by the Company.
 - vi. In the event of termination of employment due to disabilities or death resulted from occupational accidents of employee or general death of employee, the unvested portion of restricted stock awards shall be handle as follows.
 - A. Termination of employment due to disabilities as a result of occupational accidents of employee: Any unvested restricted stock awards shall immediately vest upon such termination date.
 - B. Termination of employment due to death as a result of occupational accidents of employee: Any unvested restricted stock awards shall immediately vest upon the date of death. The legal heirs of the employee shall complete all required legal procedures and provide relevant supporting documentation before being granted the shares to be inherited or interest disposed of.
 - C. Termination of employment due to general death of employee: Any unvested restricted stock awards shall be regarded as unvested upon the date of death. The Company will redeem the issued restricted stock awards and cancel the full number of share in accordance with the terms of the issuance rules set by the Company.
 - vii. Leave of absence without pay (approved by the Company): Employee who has applied for leave of absence without pay due to major personal illness, major family accidents, or study abroad according to the government laws and regulations is considered as not meeting the requirements of vesting conditions. The vesting period shall be postponed in accordance with the period of absence.
 - viii. The Company will redeem the issued restricted stock awards and cancel the shares when the vesting conditions are not met.

- ix. The rights that are subject to restriction until vesting conditions are met:
 - A. Before the vesting conditions are met, except for inheritance, employees may not sell, pledge, transfer, give to another person, create any encumbrance on, or otherwise dispose of, the restricted stock awards.
 - B. Before the vesting conditions are met, rights of the restricted stock awards to attend the shareholder's meeting, submit proposals, speak and vote at the meeting shall be performed in accordance with the custodian agreement. The Company shall withdraw cash and cancel the shares if there are cash dividend, stock dividend, and interest rights to receive capital reserve be allocated to unvested shares of restricted stock awards. After employee meets the vesting conditions, the company shall allocate the dividend from the security trust account to the employee's personal security and bank account.
 - C. Before the vesting conditions are met, except the aforementioned rights, the other rights of restricted stock awards, including but not limited to dividend, interest rights to receive capital reserve, employee stock options at cash capital increase, shall be the same as the Company's common shares issued.
- x. Other important stipulation: The restricted stock awards shall be deposited in a security trust account after the issuance. The management of the restricted stock awards in the security trust account shall be performed by the Company or the person appointed on behalf of the employees.

Article 6 : Execution and confidentiality of the agreement

1. The employees are deemed to have been granted the restricted stock awards only when they have entered into the "agreement of receiving restricted stock awards" upon notification by the responsible unit of the Company and complete all the required process for trust custody service. If the employee fails to execute the agreement, the rights to the restricted stock awards by the employee is deemed to have forfeited.
2. Anyone receiving restricted stock awards or other rights derived from in accordance with the Rules shall comply with the Rules and the "agreement of receiving restricted stock awards". The employee shall keep confidential after signing the agreement for the related contents of the Rules and the rights under the agreement. The company shall have the right to revoke and cancel any and all portions of the unvested shares of restricted stock awards in the event that the employee violates the Rules and agreement.

Article 7 : Tax

Any tax incurred from granting the restricted stock awards under the Plan shall be governed by the applicable R.O.C laws and regulations.

Article 8 : Implementation procedures

The relevant procedures and detailed operation timeline will be informed to granted employees by the responsible unit of the Company.

Article 9 : Implementation and revision

1. The Rules shall obtain approval by the majority votes in a meeting of Board of Directors which two-thirds or more directors are present, and then executed after effective registration with the competent authority. If modifications of the issuance rules are required due to amendment to the laws and regulations or instructions from the competent authority, the Chairman is authorized to make any necessary amendment to the Rules. The amendment to the Rules shall be proposed to be reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors for ratification and issuance.

2. For the matters not stipulated in the Rules, relevant applicable laws and regulations shall be referred.

RULES AND PROCEDURES OF SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

Article 1 : Except for the regulation, regular Shareholders' Meeting of the Company (the "Meeting") shall be conducted in accordance with these Rules and Procedures.

Article 2 : An attendance book shall be prepared for signing in of the attended shareholders in the Shareholders' Meeting, or attended shareholders shall submit the attendance card for the purpose of signing in. The number of shares represented by attended shareholders shall be calculated in accordance with the attendance book signing by the shareholders and the attendance cards submitted by the shareholders.

Article 3 : The attendance and voting of Shareholders' Meeting shall be calculated based on the shares.

Article 4 : The Meeting shall be held at the head office of the Company or at any other appropriate place that is convenient for the shareholders to attend. The time to start the Meeting shall not be earlier than 9:00 a.m. or later than 3:00 p.m.

Article 5 : The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be the chairman presiding at the Meeting in the case that the Meeting is convened by the Board of Directors. If, for any reason, the Chairman of the Board of Directors cannot preside at the Meeting, the Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside at the Meeting. If, no Vice Chairman or for any reason, the Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors cannot preside at the Meeting, the chairman may designate one managing director to do so on the chairman's behalf. If there is no managing director, the chairman may designate one director to preside at the Meeting. If the chairman does not designate a representative, the managing directors or directors shall mutually select a chair from among themselves..

If the Meeting is convened by any other person entitled to convene the Meeting, such person shall be the chairman to preside at the Meeting. When two or more parties meet this description, they shall mutually select a chair from among themselves.

Article 6 : The Company may appoint designated counsel, CPA or other related persons to attend the Meeting. Persons handling affairs of the Meeting shall wear identification cards or badges.

Article 7 : The process of the Meeting shall be tape-recorded or videotaped and these tapes shall be preserved for at least one year.

Article 8 : Chairman shall call the Meeting to order at the time scheduled for the Meeting. If the number of shares represented by the shareholders present at the Meeting has not yet constituted the quorum at the time scheduled for the Meeting, the chairman may postpone the time for the Meeting. The postponements shall be limited to two times at the most and Meeting shall not be postponed for longer than one hour in the aggregate. If after two postponements no quorum can yet be constituted but the shareholders present at the Meeting represent more than one - third of the total outstanding shares, tentative resolutions may be made in accordance with Section 1 of Article 175 of the Company Law of the Republic of China.

If during the process of the Meeting the number of outstanding shares represented by the shareholders present becomes sufficient to constitute the quorum, the chairman may submit the tentative resolutions to the Meeting for approval in accordance with Article 174 of the Company Law of the Republic of China.

Article 9 : The agenda of the Meeting shall be set by the Board of Directors if the Meeting is convened by the Board of Directors.

Unless otherwise resolved at the Meeting, the Meeting shall proceed in accordance with the agenda.

The above provision applies mutatis mutandis to cases where the Meeting is convened by any person, other than the Board of Directors, entitled to convene such Meeting.

Unless otherwise resolved at the Meeting, the chairman cannot announce adjournment of the Meeting before all the discussion items (including special motions) listed in the agenda are resolved.

The shareholders cannot designate any other person as chairman and continue the Meeting in the same or other place after the Meeting is adjourned. However, in the event that the Chairman adjourns the Meeting in violation of these Rules and Procedures, the shareholders may designate, by a majority of votes represented by attended shareholders, one person as chairman to continue the Meeting.

Article 10 : When a shareholder present at the Meeting wishes to speak, a Speech Note should be filled out with summary of the speech, the shareholder's number (or the number of Attendance Card) and the name of the shareholder. The sequence of speeches by shareholders should be decided by the chairman.

If any shareholder present at the Meeting submits a Speech Note but does not speak, no speech should be deemed to have been made by such shareholder. In case the contents of the speech of a shareholder are inconsistent with the contents of the Speech Note, the contents of actual speech shall prevail.

Unless otherwise permitted by the chairman and the shareholder in speaking, no shareholder shall interrupt the speeches of the other shareholders, otherwise the chairman shall stop such interruption.

Article 11 : Unless otherwise permitted by the chairman, each shareholder shall not, for each discussion item, speak more than two times (each time not exceeding 5 minutes). In case the speech of any shareholder violates the above provision or exceeds the scope of the discussion item, the chairman may stop the speech of such shareholder.

Article 12 : Any legal entity designated as proxy by a shareholder(s) to be present at the Meeting may appoint only one representative to attend the Meeting.

If a corporate shareholder designates two or more representatives to attend the Meeting, only one representative can speak for each discussion item.

Article 13 : After the speech of a shareholder, the chairman may respond himself/herself or appoint an appropriate person to respond.

Article 14 : The chairman may announce to end the discussion of any resolution and go into voting if the Chairman deems it appropriate.

Article 15 : The person(s) to check and the person(s) to record the ballots during a vote by casting ballots shall be appointed by the chairman. The person(s) checking the ballots shall be a shareholder(s).

The result of voting shall be announced at the Meeting and placed on record.

Article 16 : During the Meeting, the chairman may, at his discretion, set time for intermission.

Article 17 : Except otherwise specified in the Company Law or the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, a resolution shall be adopted by a majority of the votes represented by the shareholders present at the Meeting. The resolution shall be deemed adopted and shall have the same effect as if it was voted by casting ballots if no objection is voiced after solicitation by the chairman.

Article 18 : If there is amendment to or substitute for a discussion item, the chairman shall decide the sequence of voting for such discussion item, the amendment or the substitute. If any one of them has been adopted, the others shall be deemed vetoed and no further voting is necessary.

Article 19 : The chairman may conduct the disciplinary officers or the security guard to assist in keeping order of the Meeting place. Such disciplinary officers or security guards shall wear badges marked "Disciplinary Officers" for identification purpose.

Article 20 : These Rules and Procedures shall be effective from the date it is approved by the Shareholders' Meeting. The same applies in case of revision.
